C. M. STONE & CO. A Possibility.

However unpleasant it may be to contemplate, it is at least unwise to ignore president, and his removal was certain. the possiblity of a much lower depth by Andrew Johnson. It is well to keep in mind that he has thus far fulfilled the We arse predictions concerning him. The persons who have argued that Seward, and other members of the cabinet, remained there simply to avert evils which they foresaw, through their influence over the president, have abandoned even that

It is useless to shut our eyes to the fact that Secretary Stanton, Gens. Sheridan and Sickles were removed by Mr. Johnted the knife with which to do her bloody son because their course has not been agreeable to the rebels, and is approved by faithful Union men. Everybody sist when the bleeding woman threw herknows that both Sheridan and Sickles have been displaced, not for any fault, but simply for the earnestness and ability and after cutting her throat thrust her with which they have executed the will of the people in enforcing the reconstruction laws. What is the effect of these removals in the southern states? HOME FOR DESTITUTE CHILDREN.-We have received a communication from Key, John H. Worcester, of Burlington, relative to this institution. We regret that the length and lateness of its arrival prevents its publication. The gist of it, however, is this: The Home needs a permanent fund: and to secure this, as well as to make known the character and claims of the institution, the managers have secured the services, for a few weeks, of Rev. Isaac McAnn, who will present this cause to the churches and Christian people of this state.
